

Category 7. Online Workshops and Courses

Many organizations are starting to deliver professional development activities through the use of online workshops and courses. In time, we may be able to use the expertise within our district to offer some online activities. Information about course content, registration procedures, and PDP's will be available through the provider. Online opportunities will be available through our Professional Development "Catalog".